

How to measure?

You should take three vertical measurements (left, center and right, in inches) and three horizontal measurements (top, center, bottom, in inches). When ordering you should provide the smaller ones one per horizontal and one per vertical, you should not make deductions from the measurements. Vertical ceiling to window sill Horizontal wall to wall. For the divider just take a vertical measurement of the window sill at the height of the window divider.

VERTICAL

HORIZONTAL

